PERSONAL STATEMENT

I have been a qualified Beauty Therapist for over 5 years and graduated from the London School of Beauty and Make-Up on Oxford Street. The experience and training I received here set the foundations of my career and confirmed to me that my passion in life was to make others feel special. I also love the fact the Beauty industry is always developing new products and treatments, I like to use my experience to try them out and offer the best ones to our clients here at St George's Hill.

ETHOS

My passion is to make you feel welcome and relaxed receiving a top quality service throughout your treatment with us. My focus is on providing a unique and quality experience that you all deserve.
